

Proposed solution

Although screening, diagnosis, and progress assessment of COVID-19 have been effectively performed through reliance on radiological examinations, including CT and digital photography (DR),

The huge problem that researchers and decision-makers have to deal with is the ever-increasing volume of the data, known as big data,

Generative Adversarial Network (GAN) is gives less accuracy compare to Ground-glass opacity (GGO)